

Unitarian Society of Germantown
Standing on the Side of
LOVE
BLACK LIVES MATTER

Sunday, July 24th, 2016

Unitarian Universalist 1st Principle: Uphold the inherent worth and dignity of every person.

The day before the Democratic National Convention kicks off in Philadelphia, join us as we raise awareness and understanding of the issues embodied in the Black Lives Matter Movement.

10:30 am • Black Lives Matter Service at the Unitarian Society of Germantown

*6511 Lincoln Drive, Phila.
Parking lot accessible off Johnson Street between Greene & Wayne Avenues*

11:30 am – 12:15 pm
Brown Bag Lunch

If you'd like to eat at the church before heading to the public witness, please bring a brown bag lunch and join us in the assembly room

1:30 – 3:30 pm
Public Witness

Independence National Historical Park, south side of the Second Bank of the United States, between 4th and 5th on Library Street

Members of USG in front of the church on Lincoln Drive

A group will be leaving from the church and walking to Upsal Station to catch the 12:29 train to the city and walk together from Jefferson Station to the public witness site. All are welcome to join the LOVE train or travel independently and meet us there.

If you can't find the site or have last minute questions or concerns, call Andrea at 267-809-7282.